Salem Youth Injured In Shooting Mishap On Sunday Afternoon

Shooting at old shotgun cases with a .22 caliber rifle almost cost a 19-year-old Salem, Wis., youth his eye Sunday afternoon.

Kenosha County Sheriff's Deputy Ed Polansky and Gerald Sonquist said that Duane Merrill was taking pot-shots at the shotgun cases at close range when either a bullet or part of a case rebounded and struck him.

Young Merrill was rushed to Kenosha hospital where he was treated for a wound over his left eye, caused by the flying piece of

Strong Winds Whip Much of Lake County In Weekend Storms

Little Damage Caused Here But Round Lake Park Cinema Collapses

Last Friday's near tornado, which swept a path of destruction across Lake county, did comparatively little damage in the Antioch area other than battering down a number of trees, and putting a few telephones out of commission.

Antioch resident William Lemke, part owner of the Holiday Theatre in Round Lake Park, was temporarily put out of business to the tune of $100,000 however, when his four-year-old cinema palace was churned into a twisted pile of rubble.

The 600-seat cement block theatre, which was scheduled to show "Body Snatcher" and "Allegory of Uprising" Friday night, did its own personal performance of "Gone With the Wind" just one hour before show time.

Owner Thanks God
"Thank God there were no people in the seats," was the first thing Lemke is reported to have said on hearing of the news. Had the wind (continued on page 10)

Two Antioch Students Receive Special Awards In Surprise Ceremonies

Two Antioch girls were singled out for special honors at senior commencement ceremonies of the Illinois Masonic Hospital School of nursing held in the Scottish Rite Cathedral Friday.

They are June Hunter Thompson, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Elmer Hunter, and Sue Garland, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. George Garland.

Mrs. Thompson received the senior award of $75, and Miss Garland won the freshman award of $50, each for outstanding achievement in their respective classes.

The awards were presented Friday for the first time by the Masonic Grand Order of the Sword of Bunker Hill. Their presentations reportedly came as a complete surprise to each of the girls.

Mrs. E. J. Brixen and grand-daughter, Janet Beelow, left Saturday for Tucson, Ariz., where they expect to spend the summer.

Education Tax Increase Of Grass Lake District Bobs Up For 3rd Time

You Can't Keep a Hot Issue Down, Board Members Say

Down twice but still kicking, is the educational tax increase proposition for Grass Lake School, which comes up for a vote the third time on July 11.

Residents of the area, who have the lowest tax rate in the county, defeated by just two votes a move last month to boost the school's tax rate in order to rescue Dist. 36 from financial distress.

At the suggestion of Supt. W. C. Petty, the district will this time try for a rate of .81 per cent, rather than .71 per cent. The present rate of .41 cents on the $100 valuation is far from sufficient to keep the "little red school house" out of the red ink.

If passed, the new .81 cent rate will still be insufficient for the district to meet its needs financially, but it will help to keep the school's chimney above water until an additional type of aid can be found.

The board of directors of Grass Lake school has asserted that the old school must be reopened and renovated so that a classroom may be maintained there. A fourth teacher has also been employed for the coming year, because of impending overcrowding at the school.

The district has already borrowed up to the limit in tax anticipation warrants. Members of the board of directors stated that the proposed increase was twice defeated apparently because "people listened to the usual rumors that start when additional funds are needed, instead of seeking facts and looking over the school district township treasurer's report."

Mrs. Gaston Named Doughnut Day Head, Tag Day Tomorrow

Little brown doughnut-shaped tags will mark the laps of Antioch area residents tomorrow, June 12, as this village observes the Salvation Army's "Doughnut Day."

The paper doughnut has become famous as a symbol of this annual tag day. Volunteers will work as taggers in the Antioch business district from 6 a. m. until 3 p. m., accepting public contributions in support of the services offered by the Salvation Army to those in need.

Mrs. H. B. Gaston, 654 N. Main st., has been appointed chairman of the 1953 Doughnut day activities in the Antioch area. Persons wishing to act as volunteer tag day workers tomorrow are urged to contact Mrs. Gaston either at The Antioch News or by calling her at her home, Antioch 429.

Twenty per cent of the funds raised in the local Doughnut Day fund drive will remain in Antioch to be made available for a wide variety of social and welfare services throughout the year.

Orchard St. Project Is Coming Along Fine

The Orchard st. renovation, which includes widening, paving, setting of curbs, and sidewalks, is progressing extremely well in spite of undesirable weather, Mayor James W. McMillen has reported. The street should be completed within a week, he said.

The widening is completed, and new curbs have already been poured. Sidewalks are partially installed both alongside Mortenson's and the offices of Drs. I. L. Breakstone and J. W. Kopriva.

The setting of tile and filling in of a drainage ditch, and a small amount of grading is all that remains before the street can be completed.

Lake Villa Youngster Struck by Car Monday

A three-year-old Lake Villa tot, James Esteb, of Venetian Village, suffered multiple injuries Monday when struck by a car as he rode his tricycle on one of the subdivision streets.

The youngster sustained head, neck, arm, and ankle injuries when hit by the car of Alfred Sherbeim, also of Venetian Village.

Call Special Meeting

A special meeting of the Antioch village board will be held tonight at 8 o'clock, Clarence Shultis, clerk, has announced. Purpose of the meeting will be to discuss an appropriations ordinance for the coming year, Shultis said.

Householders' Tip Demonstrated by Rural Handiwoman

How NOT to clean a refrigerator was demonstrated by Mrs. Minnie Schreiber, corner of Rte. 41 and 173, Tuesday, whose housecleaning efforts resulted in a call for the Antioch Rescue Squad to her home. Mrs. Schreiber was reportedly cleaning the motor of her automatic icebox with a screw driver, when she accidentally broke a coil, causing refrigerator gas to gush into her face.

The Antioch Rescue Squad administered first aid to the woman, and then took her to Victory Memorial hospital.

A refrigerator also made news at the David Arthur home on the north shore of Channel lake Friday when the motor overheated and the Antioch Fire department had to be called out. The only damage that resulted was to the cooler.

Village Scouter, Wife, Killed In Car-Train Crash

Drive Around Lowered Crossing Gates to Their Deaths

Medill A. Radloff, 42, district Boy Scout commissioner for the Antioch area for the past nine years, died late last night in Condell Memorial hospital in Libertyville of injuries suffered yesterday morning when the car in which he was riding was struck by a North Shore train.

His wife, Edith, 34, who was driving the auto, was killed instantly in the crash. Mr. Radloff succumbed at 10:25 p. m.

Their two small daughters, Martha, 9, and Margaret, 5, were orphaned by the tragedy.

The Radloffs lived at 131 Sunset drive, Libertyville. Yesterday's fatal accident occurred at 7:52 a. m., as Mrs. Radloff was driving her husband to work at the Frank Hough Manufacturing Co., where he was an industrial engineer.

A witness to the tragic episode, Jack Egerter of Waukegan, told police that the warning gates at the 4th ave. North Shore crossing in Libertyville lowered themselves as the Radloff auto approached. He said Mrs. Radloff circled the gates and drove directly into the path of the train.

Crossing Gates Were Down
Howard Murphy of Highland Park, motorman of the train, told Police Chief Joseph Saam that he was moving at approximately 40 miles an hour, and that an automatic safety signal ahead showed him the crossing gates were down.

The impact knocked the automobile 30 feet from the tracks, tearing down the crossing gate and its base in its wake. Mrs. Radloff's broken body was heaved from the car.

Yesterday's two fatalities brought the 1953 traffic toll in Lake County to 23, as compared to 27 a year ago this date.

THURSDAY, JUNE 11, 1953

Declaration of Principal

The House Appropriations Committee has made a real and dramatic start on the job of cutting waste out of the government—and in stopping the trend toward socialism.

This happened on April 23, when the interior Department's budget came up for consideration. The committee slashed one-third—$202,473,161—from the figure submitted by President Truman before he left office. Much of this was taken from appropriations for existing and proposed socialized electric-power projects.

The committee also issued a policy declaration, which laid down certain all-important principles. One is that government should enter the power business "only with those functions or activities which private enterprise cannot or will not undertake." Another is that "in all future projects or new starts, which include transmissions lines, private enterprise shall be urged to take the initiative in constructing, owning and operating such works before money is made available for federal construction." A third is that in the case of power projects now under way private enterprise should "be taken into partnership to build, own and operate that part of each project that can be handled by private ownership under conditions that protect the interest of all the people."

This stand upholds the principle that government has no business to spend our tax money on any power project so long as private enterprise is willing and able to do the job. The willingness and ability of private enterprise is beyond argument—it can handle the biggest and costliest undertakings in stride. Every taxpayer and every believer in freedom should applaud the committee's action and declaration of principle.

Horsepower Is the Key

Horsepower—machine-produced horsepower—has been of immeasurable benefit to the farmer. The benefits to all the rest of us, who buy and eat and wear the produce of the land, has been equally important and spectacular.

Writing in The National Grange Monthly, L. E. Childers of the U. S. Department of Agriculture has this to say: "Years ago it was demonstrated that a strong, healthy man working at a capstan—the sort of treadmill still used in some primitive areas of the world for converting human energy into mechanical power, could develop about one-tenth horsepower for an eight hour day. On that basis it would cost about $10 for each horsepower hour of power development by man labor, assuming a wage of a dollar an hour.

"It would be totally impossible, of course, in this day and age to meet the needs of food production with that kind of power at such a price." Mr. Childers went on to point out that each farm worker had 2.2 horsepower at his command in 1900, 5.2 horsepower in 1920, and 33 horsepower in 1950. And the figure is higher still today.

This is why a relatively small proportion of our people, working on the land, can meet all our needs for farm products and satisfy a heavy foreign demand at the same time. Machinery and power have made that possible.

"No Stock Exchange in Moscow"

Some time ago, G. Keith Funston, president of the New York Stock Exchange, pointed out one fundamental difference between freedom and communism when he said: "There's no Stock Exchange in Moscow!"

The Labor Union, a newspaper that is owned by member organizations of the American Federation of Labor, used the phrase as a title for a feature editorial. It quoted statements made by Mr. Funston in which he urged widespread stock ownership as a means of giving our people a direct and tangible stake in our system of doing things. Then the paper said: "... your right and privilege to become an owner of American business, if you so choose, is one of those precious rights you enjoy and take for granted. And it's a right that you certainly wouldn't have if this country were controlled by communists.

"And, even if you don't own stocks and never intend to, you must never forget that you will have a tremendous stake in the American free enterprise system.

"Because if you work for a living, somebody invested the money that started the business going. The chances are there are stockholders who have put up the money, provided the plant and the tools that make your jobs possible.

"It's the way the American system works. And it's the most successful economic system ever known on earth."

Capital and labor have their conflicts. But they have one great thing in common—and that is the duty and privilege to keep this free system of ours strong and secure.

The Low Down from Hickory Grove

Like a "lost child" at the fair grounds—it always happens—but a youngster has nothing particular to go by, he has no hindsight to guide him. It is different with a grown up—or a whole nation—they have "hindsight versus foresight" to help 'em steer clear of getting lost in the woods. But there is a gimmick—nations and grown-ups profit little from hindsight. It has been thusly since Mr. Alexander the Great wandered from Europe to far away Persia and onto the fringe of India. He bogged down there—he was not the "Great Man" he thought—at 33 he was washed up, a once cheery but now quite dead gent.

Mr. Attila the Hun, he ventured too far—didn't get to where his ticket read. Nero became much too pompous and cheery—finally set Rome on fire, both disappeared from the picture. And all the way back through the ages and down to Bonaparte and the Kaiser and Adolph, when they got far enough from their own stamping ground they met a better man.

I leave it to the editors of the land to unlimber their potent pens—let 'em discuss "hindsight vs. foresight" as it has to do with the gent who take on more burdens and interferences and noisiness—far.

Yours with the low-down,

JO SERRA

Antioch Area First to Organize Victory Hospital Fund Drive

Eight citizens of the Antioch area have been named to the Advisory and Executive committee in charge of solicitation of funds for Victory Memorial hospital. It was announced today by Charles Parsons, chairman.

They are Edmund F. Vos; William Brook, Dr. D. N. Deering, Edward C. Jacobs, Homer La Plant, Loren D. Sexauer, Edward Strang, and Robert J. Wilton.

Antioch is the first village in the county to organize such a committee to aid in the fund drive. Zion Winthrop Harbor, Round Lake, and Grayslake are now in process of organization.

The group met Tuesday night to map initial strategy to launch a campaign in the Antioch area to aid in the expansion fund drive now being conducted by the Waukegan hospital.

Victory Memorial is planning a 66-bed addition to further serve the citizens of this area. This will be the first time that the people of Lake county have been asked to subscribe to Victory since the hospital was built in 1923.

The Antioch committee is scheduled to meet for a report of progress Tuesday at the country club.

Fourteen seniors of the Girls' Athletic Association of Antioch Township High School, traveled by school bus to the Beverly YMCA Lodge for a camping trip, leaving Antioch the morning of June 3 and returning Friday night. The camp is located approximately 70 miles south of Antioch.

Camping was new experience for most of the girls, who did their own cooking, dishwashing and cleaning. The lodge was divided into three parts—dormitory, lounge and kitchen.

All expenses were paid for these girls. The money was obtained by sponsoring a skating party earlier in the year.

The girls who went on the trip were Sylvia Beelow, Mary Fields, Barbara Forbrich, Sue Forgette, Margie Haling, Mary Kisel, Carol Loftus, Pat Miller, Karen Martin, Doris Petersen, Nancy Vance, and Marlene Wertz. Miss Schutte, commercial instructor, and Miss Donovan, G. A. A. advisor accompanied the girls on the trip. Joan Cervenka was unable to go on the trip.

American Legion Jr. Baseball Team Wins First Victory Here

Antioch's American Legion Junior Baseball team started on its way toward a winning season here Monday night by edging out Zion by a score of 8 to 7.

Already one win ahead of last year's total (they lost 10 out of 10), the junior leaguers promise to dunk Mundelein when they play their first away-from-home game at 6:15 tomorrow night.

Sponsored by the Antioch American Legion post, the local team is open to all sports-minded fellows up to 17 years of age who can qualify for a berth in the lineup.

Bob Hansen, who came to Antioch from Chicago less than a year ago, is manager of the local team. He is assisted by Herbert Meyer, Grass Lake, and Jerry Quilty, coaches.

Home diamond for the Antioch team is the ball field behind the high school. "A good crowd cheering the boys on at Mundelein tomorrow night will help bring home another victory," Hansen says.

4-H Clubbers Meet And Discuss Plans For Fit Field Day

The Antioch Acorns, local 4-H club, met last night to shape final plans for Keeping-Fit Field Day, to be held June 18 at the Grayslake High school, and also to make arrangements for the club's bake sale to be held at 6 p. m. tomorrow in the Ford garage.

Proceeds of the bake sale will go into the Acorns' treasury for use during the coming season. Keeping-Fit Field Day, high point in the 4-H health program, is a definite crusade with goals for keeping youngsters well and strong. Ray Nicholas, Lake County farm adviser, has announced that specialists from the University of Illinois will be on hand next Thursday to conduct tests and exercises to show 4-H'ers a few hidden muscles they didn't know about.

So far Illinois is the only state that has organized such a program for its rural youngsters, Nicholas said. The keeping-fit activity has been used since 1941 to stimulate interest of 4-H clubbers in their physical growth and health.

Mrs. Elmo Edwards who recently underwent surgery at Victory Memorial hospital, Waukegan, returned home Tuesday.

saker, Yanks, 3 for 6, 500; Hucker, Yanks, 2 for 4, 500, and Richard Hollatz, Tigers, 1 for 2, 500.

The Yanks started out fast Sunday, scoring 2 runs in the first half of the first inning, but the Cubs retaliated with 3 runs in the second half. The Yanks scored two more runs in the third inning and 3 in the fifth. It was only half as many runs as the lucky Cubs achieved however, with 1 in the second inning, 3 in the third and 3 in the fourth, and 4 in the fifth.

The Tigers failed to draw first blood on the Dodgers Sunday, who scored the first run of the game in the second half of the first inning. The Tigers tied it up 1 and 1 in the second, and each tallied up an additional two runs in the third to make it 3 and 3. The Dodgers burned up the bases in the fourth with five runs, and the Tigers' final score of 1 in the fifth inning was 4 shy of evening up the totals.

The Giants battled the Sox yesterday, and this Sunday is the date of the next big double-header, with the Cubs vs. the Dodgers in one game, and the Giants against the Yanks in the other.

While general attendance at the games is gratifying, C. A. Wolfinbarger, who umpires at the games has reported that there are not enough dads turning out before-hand to help with the field work.

Wolfinbarger stated that the ball-field must be mowed and raked every Sunday before game time, and the bases must be lined.

"It takes more than five fellows to keep it going," he says. "How about making it a standing invitation to come out and help the Little League every Sunday morning? Let's go!"

SHORT STORY

Quirk Of Nature

By Bosley McAdams

WE WERE sitting in the press room of the Sandtown court house waiting for a jury to bring in a verdict on the Mansville case. Beryl Nesbit, sob sister for the Courier, was there.

You have probably heard of people (Beryl began) with queer quirks of nature people whose lives are regulated according to strange obsessions and phobias. Hugh Victor, the man I'm telling you about, was this sort of person.

Hugh's queer-ness lay in his passion for finishing as quickly and completely as possible any and every task that he set out to do.

It was so, indeed, when he met Edith Phelps and fell in love with her. At first she spurned his attentions. He wasn't her type.

Hugh ignored her decision. He had set out to win her. He would win her. Unconsciously, instinctively, he laid out an intensive campaign. He was as practical and methodical as he was when figuring his income tax.

And he almost succeeded. He was so serious about it, so intent, and therefore so convincing that Edith, like one hypnotized, began to think that Hugh was, actually, the only man in the world who could make her happy. She did, in fact, give him a tentative affirmative answer. If she stated, after a year, she still felt the same way, she'd marry him.

Hugh was frantic. This wasn't according to his habit. He had begun a definite undertaking. He couldn't wait a year to see it finished. He kept pressing his suit. But Edith was firm. In order to escape him for awhile she planned a trip abroad. At the last minute Hugh heard about it and he booked passage on the same boat.

But, alas! At this point fate took a hand. Midway across the ocean a terrific storm came up. The ship was blown far off her course. She foundered on a reef and passengers and crew took to lifeboats. Many, panicky, jumped overboard.

Hugh was one of those who jumped. He swam around for a while and presently found a half-submerged timber. Using this as a buoy he spent the night drifting with the wind. Morning showed him a tiny island close at hand. He gained its shore, mounted to a small hill, scanned the horizon and his heart sank. Not a sign of a living or moving thing in any direction.

There was nothing to do but face the facts. He was stranded on a desert island. No telling when help would come, if ever. And here his practical, methodical mind came to his aid. He found water, berries, driftwood. He found a ship's chest on the beach, containing a few articles of clothing, a knife, matches, a revolver. With these as his only possessions he began his fight for survival.

It took him an hour to decide on the west coast to build the rude shelter that was to be his home. His practical mind told him that the west side would be better because the prevailing winds were westerly.

And so he set about building his house out of driftwood and brush and rocks. He started the task and immediately, as was his custom, was seized with a feverish desire to finish it.

In the meantime a rescue party, searching for survivors, had landed on the east side, looked around, decided that if anybody were on the island they'd surely be looking for help from the hill, and sailed away.

And then one day a passing vessel saw the smoke from a fire he had built for cooking, set a boat ashore and found poor, emaciated, wild looking Hugh. They took him away, rejoicing that the last survivor of the vessel that foundered was saved.

But the worst was yet to come. Back in New York Hugh was visited by Edith. She was a brave girl, courageous. She had come to tell him herself that she couldn't marry him.

But Hugh was only mildly interested. The next day he departed a boat to take him back to his desert island. He hadn't finished the boat he'd started to make, and he wanted to do so before he went crazy.

Rubber Storage Hint

Don't fold rubber things such as baby sheets and bathing caps when you store them. They'll last much longer if you sprinkle them with talcum powder, roll them and put them away in a box.

60 POUND PIGS AT 8 WEEKS!

"My 9 sows farrowed very big litters. In spite of scouring trouble when the pigs were about 2 weeks old, I've now got a good bunch of pigs at 8 weeks. When they started to scour, I switched them from the sows to milk replacer and Doughboy Pig Starter Jets. That ended the scouring. My neighbor helped me weigh four pigs when they were 8 weeks old. They averaged 60 pounds. I've never had any pigs that heavy at 8 weeks!"

3 1/4 POUND BIRDS IN 9 WEEKS!

"I've seen millions of broilers in my many years in the poultry business, but I've never seen anything like my 1953 Doughboy-fed flock! My birds were averaging 3 1/4 pounds at 9 weeks—weighed in at 3 1/4 pounds in just 9 weeks and 5 days! Just as important, I had practically no death losses and the feed conversion was 2.60 per pound of gain!"

BOB JAMISON, Burlington, Wis.

Rubber Storage Hint

Don't fold rubber things such as baby sheets and bathing caps when you store them. They'll last much longer if you sprinkle them with talcum powder, roll them and put them away in a box.

60 POUND PIGS AT 8 WEEKS!

"My 9 sows farrowed very big litters. In spite of scouring trouble when the pigs were about 2 weeks old, I've now got a good bunch of pigs at 8 weeks. When they started to scour, I switched them from the sows to milk replacer and Doughboy Pig Starter Jets. That ended the scouring. My neighbor helped me weigh four pigs when they were 8 weeks old. They averaged 60 pounds. I've never had any pigs that heavy at 8 weeks!"

3 1/2 POUND BIRDS IN 9 WEEKS!

"I've seen millions of broilers in my many years in the poultry business, but I've never seen anything like my 1953 Doughboy-fed flock! My birds were averaging 3 1/2 pounds at 9 weeks—weighed in at 3 1/2 pounds in just 9 weeks and 5 days! Just as important, I had practically no death losses and the feed conversion was 2.60 per pound of gain!"

BOB JAMESON, Burlington, Wis.

Antioch Insurance Man Attends Conference at Mackinac Island, Mich.

Mr. and Mrs. William P. Hansen of Lake Marie returned home Sunday after attending a four-day business conference of the Metropolitan Life Insurance Co. at Mackinac Island, Mich.

Hansen was one of 10 staff members of the Waukegan office of the company to attend the conference with Metropolitan officials at Mackinac's Grand hotel.

In addition to attending a sales congress, panel discussions, and listening to talks by vice presidents from the home office, the insurance agents found time for relaxation, too. Highlight of the four-day outing was a cruise on the Straits of Mackinac aboard the Steamers North American and South American, with 450 agents and their wives participating.

Hansen was picked to attend the conference because of his exceptional sales and service record. "He's one of our leading agents, and we're very proud of him," Cecil A. Evans, supervisor of the Waukegan Metropolitan office announced yesterday.

"Hansen has been with us about seven years now—in fact he came up here in his sailor suit, fresh out of the Navy," Evans said. "And he's made the Honor Club here every year that he's been with the company."

Dashing Dell Carroll Is Expected To Star On Polo Field Sun.

Dedication of the Arlington Farms-CYO Polo field on Buckley rd. north of Libertyville Sunday by Bishop Bernard J. Shiel, founder and director of the Catholic Youth Organization, will highlight activities at the polo plant beginning at 2:30 p. m.

The ceremonies will precede the International Polo League tilt between Arlington Farms-CYO and the Blind Brook club of New York.

The power-laden Easterners will be led by Al Parsells, one of the strongest men in the game, and one of the two nine-goal players who are now active.

Sunday's dedication will celebrate the purchase of the beautiful Buckley rd. farm by the CYO, and as an added attraction the famous CYO marching band will entertain at half-time.

Dashing Dell Carroll, popular star of the powerful Arlington Farms teams of the past, will make his first appearance of the season with the Libertyville quartet, having missed the first two games because of a hand injury.

Carroll will be at No. 2, behind Chuck Barnard, who found himself in scoring three goals in last Sunday's thriller, a 10 to 9 overtime victory over the Milwaukee Shamrocks.

Billy Ylvisaker will probably be in the No. 3 spot with hard hitting Jack Ryan at No. 4 for Arlington Sunday afternoon.

Strong Winds . . .

come one hour later, the theatre would have been crammed with children.

The furious gale, accompanied by an almost horizontal thundershower, lashed out at Lake county at 4:30 p. m. Like a violent whip it snapped the wooden roof off the Holiday theatre and deposited it in the street. Then it heaved down the theatre walls, one by one, smashing 16-inch concrete blocks into the seats where an hour later kids would have been sitting, munching pop corn.

"The roof seemed to float off the building like a bird, and then whooshed to the street," Mrs. Violet Grabe, a witness to the freak accident told reporters. "Then the rear wall blew in, like a mountain slide."

Edward A. Menke, district superintendent of the Public Service Co. of Northern Illinois, said the storm was one of the worst this area has suffered in recent years. He said the company received more than 500 calls after the storm passed, and the telephone switchboard "lit up like a Christmas tree."

Many Phones Out
J. M. Littler, district telephone manager of the Antioch-Libertyville area, said that some 300 phones were put out of commission by the storm—most of them in the Libertyville vicinity.

The U. S. Weather Bureau in Chicago said that the middle west has already been pelted with twice as many tornadoes as the yearly average total, and warned that more will probably come.

Safest place to be, they said, is the southwest corner of your basement, because that's the direction the storms usually come from.

A tornado usually gives about 5 minutes' warning, the weather bureau advised. First it feels as though a thunderstorm were on the way. Then there is an ear-splitting noise like a fast train approaching.

The weather expert also explained that buildings are not blown in by tornadoes, but rather they are sucked out. He said the storm creates such a vacuum that the pressure inside a building blows the roof off and the walls out.

If you're on the highway when a tornado approaches, the weatherman advised, you can usually spot its course and outrun it. He said the center of the storm travels only 20 to 50 miles an hour.

Card of Thanks

Mrs. Roelof Ten Bruin and family wish to thank all friends for their heartfelt sympathy in their recent bereavement, and especially thanks to the Antioch Rescue squad for their efforts.
